10) SELECTION CRITERIA

Selection is conducted without discrimination based on ethnicity, gender, age, disabilities, social status, health, religion, opinions, sexual preferences, marital status, or any condition that undermines human dignity or rights. Criteria include:

1. Submission of all required documents.
2. Distribution of scholarships by country.
3. Applicant's academic excellence record.
4. Preference for applicants who have never received an AMEXCID scholarship.
5. Order of application registration (earlier applications prioritized).

For research applications, additional evaluation includes:

- Awards and distinctions, complementary specialized training, professional experience related to the academic or scientific field of each candidate.
- Teaching career, considering the number of years of service and full-time or part-time dedication to the university or higher education institution.
- Performance of positions of responsibility in university management or public research organizations for at least one year, as well as positions of responsibility.

Preference is given to research in:

- a) Sustainable food systems, child nutrition, access to nutritious food, and food loss/waste reduction.
- b) Elimination of discrimination and violence against women and girls, equitable participation in decision-making, and access to economic resources.
- c) Sustainable water management, access to potable water and sanitation, and climate change impacts on water availability.
- d) Renewable energy, energy efficiency, access to clean energy, and emission reduction.
- e) Social, economic, and political inequalities, poverty reduction, social inclusion, and human rights protection.
- f) Sustainable consumption, efficient resource management, waste reduction, and sustainable supply chains.
- g) Climate change mitigation/adaptation, renewable energy, climate risk management, and ecosystem protection.

- h) Protection, restoration, and sustainable use of terrestrial ecosystems, desertification, biodiversity, and sustainable forest management.

11) RESULTS

1. Results will be communicated via email only to selected candidates, per the Call timeline. No notification indicates non-selection.
2. If a selected candidate does not confirm acceptance, AMEXCID may reassign the scholarship to another eligible applicant.
3. Acceptance by a participating Higher Education Institution does not guarantee a scholarship.
4. The final decision rests solely with the Mexican government and is non-appealable.
5. All decisions made during the selection process are final, and no response will be given regarding applications that are not accepted.
6. By registering on SIGCA, applicants accept the Call's terms and the handling of personal data per the General Law on Personal Data Protection and the Federal Law on Transparency and Access to Public Information.

12) CONSIDERATIONS

1. Scholarships are not granted for thesis work toward a degree.
2. Scholarships are non-transferable and cannot be deferred to future academic years.
3. Once awarded, scholarship periods, programs, or institutions cannot be modified or extended.
4. Expenses not specified in this Call are not covered or reimbursable by AMEXCID.
5. Selected candidates will receive instructions via email for formalizing the scholarship. Failure to respond within the specified timeframe may result in cancellation and reassignment.
6. Selected candidates must confirm acceptance in writing to support administrative processes and comply with the Call's commitments.

7. If international air transportation provided by AMEXCID is not used, reimbursement of costs may be requested.
8. Scholarship recipients must comply with the “Applicable Regulations for Foreign Scholars” (NABE’s) and any updates during their scholarship period.
9. Recipients staying 180 days or more, regardless of nationality, must obtain the visa specified by the Academic Exchange Directorate at the Mexican Embassy abroad.
10. Recipients must visit the Academic Exchange Directorate (DIA) at Plaza Juárez No. 20, Ground Floor, Col. Centro, C.P. 06010, Mexico City, from 9:00 AM to 1:30 PM on business days, within the first 10 days of the scholarship’s first month, as instructed.
11. The selected candidate will be considered a scholarship recipient as long as they formally submit the documentation to the offices of the Academic Exchange Department, and will be subject to the commitments of this Call for Applications.

The scholarship recipient must cover their own medical expenses if necessary, so it is recommended that they purchase international medical insurance that covers the period during which they will not have access to medical services.

It is recommended that you have sufficient funds to cover your expenses for at least the first 60 days of your scholarship period.

13) TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS.

1. Any matter not covered in this Call for Proposals will be resolved by AMEXCID officials who have the authority to do so.
2. In cases of force majeure preventing scholarship awards, AMEXCID will notify applicants, and the decision will be final.
3. Scholarship awards are subject to AMEXCID’s budget availability.
